

SOUTH IS SMOTHERED BY CENTRAL MACHINE

Mulligan's Eleven Atoned for Defeat of Last Year Against Packers.

Downtown Athletes Compile Score of 74 to 0 Largely With Long Passes.

The Purple and White line still remains unscathed. The third of a series of whitewashings was administered to the South High squad yesterday afternoon at Rourke park by Coach Harold Mulligan's Central High eleven. The score was 74 to 0.

Ed Willmarth the hard working, steady halfback, received a bad jolt in the shoulder, and his career may have broken on a collar today. Willmarth's probable absence from the team will cause much worry to the Purple and White.

Hodson, quarterback for the Packers, was knocked out in the third quarter when Swoboda threw him off his leg as he made a long run for a touchdown.

Campbell Scores First. South won the toss and received, but lost the ball on a fumble. After a pass and a line buck, Campbell carried the ball across for the first score. Campbell was the happiest man on the squad last night, for he got the revenge he was after, especially when he tackled Uvick. The latter was responsible for South's victory over Central last year.

Chesno, the diminutive fighting guard, recovered two South fumbles. A twenty-five yard run through tackle by Swoboda counted the second score. Robertson kicked goal.

Uvick recovers a South fumble, and a twenty-yard pass by Robertson to Swoboda netted another touchdown. Robertson missed goal.

Here Coach Mulligan sent in his entire line-up of reserves. The seconds held the Packers for five minutes. The fourth quarter began with the Purple and White squad on the field again.

Open Up Once More! Captain Rockwell instructed Campbell to open up and Mulligan's trick plays and formations brought the rest of the scores. "Swede" Anderson was badly hurt in making a tackle.

A thirty-yard pass by Robertson to Swoboda on a trick play netted another score. "Bobbie" also kicked goal. Score, 67 to 0. Meston intercepted a pass in time for Robertson to pass another ball to Swoboda, who scored on the last touchdown. Robertson kicked goal. Score, 74 to 0.

Thirty-Yard Run by Shellenburg Enables Cornhuskers to Hold Minnesota Gophers to Six to Six Tie.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 11.—Nebraska sprang a surprise by outplaying Minnesota in the last half here today and earning a 6 to 6 tie with the Gophers. Minnesota scored in the second quarter while the visitors counted in the final.

Ruben missed the try for goal. Minnesota kicked to Nebraska and the visitors attempted a series of forward pass plays which gained a little ground. Nebraska had the ball on Minnesota's forty-yard line when the half ended.

Nebraska gave Minnesota a fierce battle in the third period, which was scoreless. A Minnesota fumble gave Nebraska the ball on the Gophers' forty-yard line. End runs by Dale and Dodson brought the ball to Minnesota's eight-yard line where the Nebraska runs were held for downs.

Nebraska had the ball on Minnesota's forty-yard line when the period ended. Nebraska tied the score early in the fourth quarter.

SYACUSE WINS GAME FROM ARMY WARRIORS Forty-Yard Run by Erwig Paves Way to Victory Over West Point.

Soldiers Push Ball to Three-Yard Line, but Lack Finishing Punch. West Point, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Syracuse defeated the Army 7 to 3 today in a well played game, the upstart scoring a touchdown which they converted into a goal and the soldiers getting a goal from placement.

In the second period the Army attacked strongly and, aided by two penalties for off-side play, soon had the ball on Syracuse's three-yard line, but lacked the punch to carry it across. McQuarrie, the army fullback, then booted the goal from placement, dropping back to the fifteen-yard line.

After an exchange of punts a misplay later Erwig, who replaced Steele of Syracuse, ran forty yards to the army's five-yard line and after four plays Akeley was pushed over for a touchdown. Akeley also kicked the goal.

BLUFFS ELEVEN LOSES TO COMMERCE, 6 TO 0 The Council Bluffs High school football team lost a hard-fought game yesterday afternoon to Commerce High of Omaha. The play during the first half was featured by the hard playing of Lemon and Baker, fullback and halfback for the Bluffs team. In the third quarter, by a series of hard line plunges and persistent struggling, Mahoney of Omaha carried the ball over the goal line for a touchdown. He failed to kick a goal.

IN THE LAST FEW MINUTES OF PLAY in the last quarter, Lemon fumbled a forward pass over the Omaha goal line which would have meant at least tie score and, if the goal were kicked, victory.

HARVARD FINDS FOE UNEXPECTEDLY WEAK Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 11.—Harvard found Colby unexpectedly weak today, and second and third string players had to do the difficult running. Harvard scored 35 to 0 against the visitors.

The third touchdown followed nine plunges from the thirty-yard line. The fourth march for the goal line started on Harvard's forty-yard line, and eight rushes, five-yard line, and eight carries, carrying three forward passes, and final touchdown came through a twenty-three-yard dash by Felton from a punt caught on the Harvard forty-five-yard line and seven scrimmage.

THE SPORTLIGHT

BY GRANTLAND RICE. (Copyright, 1919, New York Tribune Inc.) For some it will come in a flash as swift as a winter gale. A lucky blow or a dash. A play that could never fail. For others it comes with the grind of long and weary years— a battle where fate is blind. A battle brief of cheers.

But for all how soon it fades. On the day of the turning tide, Where into the twilight glides? The ghosts of the champions glide! A ten-year war for the light. And then in a flash—good night! And then in a flash—good night!

Winning a Pennant. For half a century late September and early October around Cincinnati had been merely late September and early October. Other cities might have their world series thrills—but not the World metropolis.

Then along strolls Pat Moran and develops a pennant winning machine. What does it amount to? Merely this: a season of joy, enthusiasm, pep, pride, care-smashing relaxation for over 600,000 people.

How many eminent politicians or so-called statesmen or big business men have contributed as much healthy pleasure to as many people? You can come very close to naming them on the thumbs of your third hand. And yet, if you suggested to many of these highbrows that Pat Moran was a bigger man and a better citizen than they were, with a squawk you'd get. Yet this is exactly what Pat is.

ARMOURS CLASH WITH MURPHYS AGAIN TODAY Rival Clubs to Tangle in Second Double-Header at Rourke Park. Hay and Franek Scheduled to Battle in Another Hurling Contest.

Either Guy Hoffman or Bill Everitt will oppose Dyck. Hoffman picked for the St. Joseph Western league club last summer. His hurling was of great assistance to St. Joseph in winning the Western league flag and the Murphys believe he will be able to overcome Dyck's emery ball.

Bill Everitt, however, is a favorite with the Murphys, athletes and fans and may be sent in to fight it out with Dyck. Everitt has not lost a game with the Murphys this year. He has been with them since July and has pitched some wonderful ball. Bill believes he can stop the Armours and Manager Eddie Lawlor may give him the chance.

The first game will start promptly at 2 o'clock. Last Sunday 400 fans watched the game and it is expected an even larger crowd will be on hand today, especially if the weather is moderate. The team will line up as follows: MURPHYS: First—Eckenhoffer; Haller; second—O. Williams; Speck; third—C. Williams; Connor; Maney; short—Donagan; Payne; left—C. Collins; Dwyer; center—E. BOWLERS FORM CITY ASSOCIATION TODAY

Big Meeting Will Be Held This Morning at the Omaha Alleys. Nine Outside Teams Send in Entries for Midwest Tourney Here.

A city bowling association will be organized at a meeting to be held this morning at 11 o'clock at the Omaha alleys. In the past, Omaha has been practically the only city of consequence in the country which has not possessed a real city association of the American bowling congress, the premier pin tournament of the country, that bowlers entered in it must be certified by the city association with which they are affiliated.

Omaha bowlers who have entered the American bowling congress have fulfilled this formality by employing a more or less imaginary association which existed only for that one purpose.

It is the plan to form a real city association at today's meeting. This association will assume full control of all the leagues rolling in the city and all match events.

At the same time, a meeting of the Omaha Tournament Co., which will be in charge of the big Midwest tournament which will be held here November 21 to December 1, will be held. Officers of all leagues in the city are asked to be on hand at today's meeting.

Nine Teams Entered. Nine teams already outside have entered the Midwest tourney. These teams are from Peoria, Ill., Sioux City, Ia., Minneapolis, Minn., Kansas City, Mo., Des Moines, Ia., and Winner, S. D.

Three teams are entered from Kansas City and two from Minneapolis. All are reported to be crack quinters. The Peoria and Kansas City teams are the most famous tournament bowlers in the country are located.

As the dates of the tournament approach it is expected entries will begin to arrive in great numbers. It is expected 100 teams, making in all between 500 and 600 bowlers, will enter from outside points. Omaha expects to enter every team it can get together so that the event will be a real bowler's point of interest.

Plans for the tournament are progressing rapidly. Some of the greatest pin tumbler in the country will be here and the sharks are saving up for the big pot games which are bound to occur.

'SOUTH DAKOTA FALLS BEFORE OMAHA ELEVEN

Creighton Trims Coyotes in First Grid Clash of Season Here.

Mullholland Scampers 70 Yards for Touchdown on Intercepted Ball.

Creighton got away to a flying start on its 1919 football schedule at Creighton field yesterday afternoon by defeating South Dakota university, 12 to 0, in the first contest of the season here.

The game was fully satisfactory from a Creighton standpoint. The Blue and White athletes played good football. Some of the play was rugged in spots, but this is to be expected in an opening game. Considering the fact that it was the Omaha eleven's first game of the season, Tommy Mills' lads put up an excellent game.

The first touchdown scored in the game was the result of a seventy-yard open-field play by Eddie Mullholland. Following a punt by Lahey, South Dakota took the ball on the thirty-yard line. A signal was called for a smash into the center of the line on a quick snap-back from center. Connections were missed some place in the play, and the ball was snapped back, but nobody received it. As the piskin rolled on from the end, Mullholland darted in from the end, snapped up the ball and began a run for the end zone. He joined in a flash by Lahey and Condon, who acted as interference the entire trip, and the three of them succeeded in escaping Coyote tacklers who sought to check the progress of the flying Mullholland.

This touchdown was scored in the first quarter, thus giving Creighton an early lead, which was never overcome. Long Makes Long Return. The other Creighton tally was registered by Tom Long. A thirty-eight-yard return of a Coyote punt by "Tippy" Long paved the way to this score. Long gathered in the punt on Creighton's forty-yard line, and picking his way through a broken field, dodging and shaking off tacklers on almost every step, he made his way to South Dakota's twenty-two-yard mark. This seemed to put renewed vigor into the Creighton eleven, and Mills' men tore into their opponents with a viciousness that could not be stopped.

Mills scored early to take Nemac's place at tackle, and Long called for a forward pass. Mullholland made the pass to Lahey for a six-yard gain, putting the ball on the sixteen-yard line. Then Mullholland made another short pass, this time to Condo, for a five-yard gain and first downs. Moonan plunged through left guard for nine yards and Captain Lahey carried the ball the rest of the way over. He missed the goal again, making the total 12 to 0 at the end of the first half.

The outstanding feature of the game was a party named Paulson, who answers to the cognomen of "Ole" and looks the part. Mr. Paulson seems to be a bit matured, but he is unashamed of it as he seems a headgear despite the fact that he plays a line position and is a bit short on foliage on his noggin.

Paulson is playing his first year at Creighton but he has made a name for life. Ole is one of those players who possesses an uncanny faculty of following the ball. No matter where the play went Ole was right after the chap carrying the piskin. Paulson's ability to follow the ball is going to be a big aid to Creighton this year.

Neither is Paulson so slow. He's probably as big and heavy as any other man on the Creighton eleven but several times during the game yesterday he showed his end and backfield man down under punts.

Paulson, however, was not the only Creighton player who acquitted himself. "Tippy" Long played a nice defensive game and brought the spectators to their feet several times with long open field runs when returning punts. "Shorty" Driscoll, a recent acquisition from Montana, was in every play and more than held his own against the Coyotes, although he wore himself out by a little over-exercising against the ball.

Plans for the tournament are progressing rapidly. Some of the greatest pin tumbler in the country will be here and the sharks are saving up for the big pot games which are bound to occur.

November 21 to December 1 will be a big ten days for Omaha bowlers. They expect cracks from Chicago, St. Louis, Milwaukee, St. Paul and Denver to come for the tournament as well as those from Minneapolis, Peoria, Kansas City and Des Moines.

Read Gets Ambitious. Russell Read, owner of the Omaha alleys on which the tournament will be rolled, promises to be the biggest individual entry in the tournament. Read lives in Winner, S. D., where he also operates bowling alleys. He calls his teams Read's Winners and numbers them. He already has on entered Read's Winners No. 1. This is a Winner, S. D., team. He expects to enter several more teams from Winner and then he probably will back a few Omaha teams which will carry his name. Thus the number of Read's Winners teams may reach almost any figure.

The following are the outside teams which already have entered the tourney: Bill Ludlaw, Peoria, Ill.; Guya Cigars, Sioux City, Ia.; Read's Winners No. 1, Winner, S. D.; Archer Bros., Minneapolis, Minn.; Central Alleys, Minneapolis, Minn.; Little Platte Glass, Kansas City, Mo.; Mickey Culleney, Hoopstun City, Kan.; Nonaker Gasoline, Kansas City, Mo.; Mack Clothiers, Des Moines, Ia.

Parks Play Imperials. The Mouth Parks and Imperials will tangle in a football clash at Pointe du Lac at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Mouth Park team are looking for games with 125 pound teams. Call Colfax 422.
