

Brooks to Use Craig in Try for 3d Win

Dodgers Rout Yankees, 8-5, to Tie Series

Grim to Start Today for New Yorkers

By Bob Considine
Brooklyn, N. Y. (INS)—Brooklyn's comeback reached epidemic proportions Saturday at Ebbets field.

The exuberant Bums routed the halt and lame of the Yankees, 8-5, and tied the World Series in a cozy, 2-2 knot.

The tradition that a Yankee uniform frightens Brooklyn players was crushed for the second straight day. The National Leaguers batted 14 hits off five hapless Yankee pitchers and fielded like fiction characters.

Saturday night the air was tantalizing with the scent of greater triumphs to come.

Brooklyn has never won a World Series. For generations this failure has been a curse on the population. Is liberation at hand?

Craig, Grim to Start
The Brooks must gamble today.

They hoped to try to take the lead behind Don Newcombe, their 20-game winner who lost the first game of the series. But the big fellow developed a sore arm and back.

The choice is Roger Craig, slender 6-foot-4, right-handed rookie from Durham, N. C. Craig, brought in from Montreal in midseason, won five and lost three this year.

The Yanks, who admit they're down but deny they're out, will pitch Bob Grim.

Grim turned in a good performance in relief of Whitey Ford in the first game and now has a chance to prove it wasn't a mirage.

Hard Day for Yanks
Saturday was a hard day for the Yankees. Even their co-owner, millionaire contractor Del Webb, suffered.

He was hit in the right temple by a towering fly off the bat of Don Larsen while he sat in a box with Commissioner Ford Frick.

Once, Saturday, it appeared that the Yankees would get away with it, even though Mickey Mantle could hardly move off a dim in rightfield and Jerry Noren's knee would have been in bed, not center.

Gil McDougald had hit a home run off Carl Erskine in the first. A walk and a sacrifice, and a single by busy little Phil Rizzuto had produced a 2-0 lead in the second.

There were Yankee rebellions in the fourth, when Billy Martin singled home Joe Collins, and in the sixth, when singing by Elston Howard and pinch-hitter Eddie Robinson, and a Martin fly that Duke Snider misjudged into a double produced two more runs.

Dodgers Were Better
But all this violence only led to frustration. Everything the

Holy Cross Flips Shade Dartmouth

Hanover, N. H. (AP)—Holy Cross beat Dartmouth at its own aerial game in a 29-21 football victory Saturday, but was kept in turmoil to the finish as the Indians scored all three touchdowns in the final period.

Quarterbacks Jack Stephens and Billy Smithers passed for two touchdowns each for the speedier, alert Crusaders who took a 23-0 lead in the second period.

Coach Bob Blackman's game Indians finally unleashed the full fury of their passing attack late in the contest, paced by Bill Beagle and Mike Brown.

Nielsen's 4:03 Mile

Copenhagen, Denmark (AP)—Denmark's Gunnar Nielsen failed in his bid to break the four-minute mile barrier Saturday when he was clocked in 4:03.

Niels Hensow of Britain was second in 4:03.6 and Norway's Auden Boysen third in 4:07.8.

Errors Hurt Virginia

Charlottesville, Va. (AP)—George Washington capitalized on an intercepted pass and a fumble recovery Saturday for a 13-0 victory over Virginia that kept the Colonials undefeated after two starts.

New York—Johnny Mize, one of baseball's foremost sluggers who saw service with the St. Louis Cardinals, New York Giants, and New York Yankees, has been offered the job of manager of the Minneapolis team in the American Association.

He probably will signify his acceptance within the next few days.

Mize will replace Bill Rigney, who succeeded Leo Durocher as manager of the Giants, the parent club. The Millers, who won the league

Georgia Goes Down Fighting

Clemson, S. C. (AP)—Clemson's unbeaten football team smothered Georgia, 26-7, Saturday for the Tigers' first victory over the Georgians since 1914.

The rugged action exploded into two short-lived player fights in the waning moments.

Sideline spectators, among the crowd of 20 thousand, joined in the second outbreak, but the band quickly struck up the Star Spangled Banner and order was restored.

Sooners Win 21st Straight

58,000 See Unbeaten Pitt Fall, 26-14

Norman, Okla. (AP)—Speed and deception triumphed over raw power Saturday as Oklahoma walloped previously unbeaten Pittsburgh, 26-14.

The intersectional victory extended college football's longest current winning streak to 21 games.

While a near capacity crowd of 58 thousand looked on in approval, the lighter but trickier Sooners stumped the Easterners with three first-half touchdowns, then added the clincher in the dying moments after Pittsburgh cut the margin to five points in the second half.

Tommy McDonald, junior halfback from Albuquerque, N. M., was the brightest star in the Sooner offense that Coach Bud Wilkinson hurled at the Panthers in waves with two elevens alternating in each period.

McDonald scored two touchdowns on runs of 43 and nine yards and set up a third with a 23-yard jaunt.

Clendon Thomas, McDonald's alternate at left half, scampered 31 yards for an Oklahoma touchdown and Bob Burris tallied the fourth on a yard plunge.

Trailing, 19-0, at halftime, the Panthers drove 70 yards in the third period and scored on an 38-yard pass from Corny Salvaterra to Joe Walton.

A 44-yard Panther drive, started after Oklahoma lost the ball on a fumble, netted the second Pittsburgh touchdown in the fourth period, scored by Corky Cost from a yard out.

First String Ices Game

With the visitors threatening to overhaul the favored Sooners, Wilkinson pushed his first stringers back in and they smashed 67 yards in eight plays to ice the game on McDonald's second tally.

Oklahoma, which sputtered from North Carolina a week ago, started off as if it meant to blow the Panthers right out of the stadium.

Badgers Dump Iowa, 37-14; End Steals Show

Madison, Wis. (AP)—Wisconsin routed Iowa, 37-14, with surprising ease and served notice that it is a power to be reckoned with in the Big Ten football race Saturday.

Rangy Dave Howard speared three touchdown passes of 43, 16, and 33 yards to show the way for the Badgers.

A record Camp Randall Stadium crowd of 53,509 saw the relentless Badger machine overcome a 13-14 deficit in the second quarter and turn what had been a close contest into a one-sided breeze.

Haluska Connects

Haluska had a great day, completing eight of 10 passes for 138 yards. Miller hit on one of four for 44 yards. Thomas netted 64 yards on 12 carries for a 5.3 average.

Reichow turned in one of his poorer performances. Four of his 18 passes were intercepted by an alert Wisconsin secondary which picked off five in all. He completed eight for 89 yards. Fullback Roger Wiegman churned out 63 yards on 11 attempts for the Hawks on 11 attempts.

Iowa's highly-rated halfbacks, Vincent and Earl Smith, were held to only 19 yards—17 by Vincent, who was the conference ground gaining champ in 1954, and two by Smith, who led the Big Ten in scoring last year. Smith carried only once.

Badger Ends Tie

A 43-yard pass from Jim Miller—the other half of the Badger's one-two quarterback punch—to Howard tied at 7-7 in the first quarter after the Hawk-eyes had opened the scoring.

Then, with the Badgers on the short end of a 13-14 count in the second quarter, Howard made a fingertip grab of a 16-yard Haluska toss in the end zone to put Wisconsin ahead for good, 20-14.

Howard's performance of catching six passes and scoring three touchdowns equaled two Wisconsin records.

Vincent Opens Scoring

The Hawkeyes scored their first touchdown on Ed Vincent's three-yard plunge in the opening period, the first scoring of the game. They tallied another in the second on Ken Ploen's five-yard smash. Jim Freeman's conversion put Iowa in front, 14-13.

Joining in on the Badgers' march to pay dirt were Full-

Bucks Jolted by Stanford

Palo Alto, Cal. (AP)—Stanford scored from the opening kick-off and defeated Ohio State, 6-0, before 28 thousand Saturday.

After the Indians had gone 71 yards for their touchdown, they fought off every Buckeye thrust. Ohio State crossed their 25-yard line only twice during the afternoon.

Ohio State showed the same weakness at quarterback that was obvious in the Nebraska game a week ago. The Ohio field marshals killed several promising marches with poor strategy.

Indians Stop Cassidy

Stanford's coach, Chuck Taylor, had declared Stanford would stop Howard (Hopalong) Cassidy and the Indians did the best job of any one in the lightning redhead's four years of play. Cassidy carried only four times in the first half and only 11 all told for a total of 37 yards.

It was Jerry Gustafson and Bill Tarr who led Stanford to its winning touchdown. Starting from his 29, Tarr made six on two rushes and then Gustafson hit Beatie for 14 yards.

Gustafson touched off another running series with a 12-yard sweep and then nicked Tarr with a pass that put the ball on Ohio's 32. From there Gustafson passed to Paul Camera for 18.

Camera Gets Score

Dorn lashed center for seven and an Ohio offense put the ball on the two. One Stanford rush failed and Gustafson pitched to Camera in the corner of the end zone.

Francis Machinsky broke through to block Stanford's conversion try.

Huskers Smash Jinx at Kansas State, 16-0

By Gregg McBride
Wildcat Sports Staff Member.
Memorial Stadium, Manhattan, Kans.—Nebraska shook a three-year Kansas State jinx with a 16-0 victory Saturday.

A crowd of 12,500 watched a dramatic exhibition between two teams, weary from Big Ten assignments the preceding week.

The two touchdowns were the first for Nebraska at Wildcat expense in the last three meetings.

Don Erway, junior quarterback, monopolized the Cornhusker scoring.

Breaks Scoring Barrier

Erway's dive from the one broke the scoring barrier in the third quarter. His conversion spotted Nebraska a 7-0 lead.

Nebraska's field goal early in the fourth period was the clincher.

His second touchdown, another one-yard sneak, completed the second-half rout.

In directing the Nebraska offense, Erway had fine help from Rex Fischer, Willie Greenlaw and George Cifra.

Cifra, pinch-hitting for John Edwards, sidelined by a charley-horse, went the route.

It was his bulling through the middle for 16 yards which started the first Husker touchdown drive.

Unexpected Line Help

Fischer's sparkling sprints fluffed the Nebraska attack and the husky Greenlaw was the lad whose power running stunned the weary Kansans late in the game.

Up front, the Huskers got unexpected help from a green bunch.

Tackle Laverne Torczon provided several important stops until benched by injury. Guard Bill Taylor, and End Jon McWilliams also stood out.

After a listless first quarter, Nebraska took command.

The Huskers paraded 78 yards to their first touchdown. The drive started after K-State's Jim Rusher missed a field goal attempt from the 38-yard line.

Exchange of Fumbles

An exchange of fumbles predated the touchdown march. Nebraska's Bill Taylor covered a Wildcat bobble on the Nebraska 22 to give the Huskers new life.

The Nebraska used 13 plays to cover the 78 yards.

Cifra's bone-crushing smash for 16 opened the drive. Two five-yard slants by Fischer kept it alive and a 40-yard pass-run play, Erway to Greenlaw, produced a first down on the Wildcat 10.

The Wildcats stiffened and forced a fourth-down pass. Erway's pitch to Greenlaw was ruled complete when K-State Fullback Doug Roether applied a man-sized tackle on the Husker receiver as the latter was whirling to field the ball.

Automatic First Down

If was an automatic first down on the K-State four. Nebraska used three punches by Erway for the TD.

The clock showed 6:53 left when Erway booted the field goal which sewed up the win. His kick from the 30 had just enough steam to clear the crossbar 40 yards away.

Harry Johnson's pass interception and 28-yard return to mid-field and a 22-yard Greenlaw sweep had penetrated K-State territory.

The field goal attempt was necessary as Nebraska's passing attack floundered.

'Gift' Touchdown

The second Nebraska touchdown with 3:25 left in the game was a gift.

Substitute Bob Willibey, attempting a punt, muffed a wild pass from center. An eager Nebraska covered the ball on the Kansas State three.

Fischer was good for two, then Erway dived for the score.

Nebraska muffed a couple of second-quarter scoring chances.

Marquette Stuns Tulsa Club, 13-0

Milwaukee, Wis. (AP)—Marquette stunned Tulsa with a touchdown in the first 95 seconds of play Saturday night and went on to post a 13-0 triumph before 14 thousand at Marquette Stadium.

Ray Zagar passed to Jim Stracka for 57 yards and the tally.

Zagar also had a hand in Marquette's second touchdown. Lee Hermesen took a hand-off from Zagar and scooted 20 yards around right end for the only other score of the game.

After Rice had broken a 14-14 tie early in the final period by recovering a fumble on the LSU 10, Quarterbacks Paul Rebersem and M. C. Reynolds led the Tigers in a final surge.

Reynolds climaxed the long march by hitting Halfback Vince Gonzalez with an 18-yard touchdown pass with 22 seconds to play.

'Shippi Rumps

University, Miss. (AP)—The University of Mississippi grabbed the breaks and broke loose on three scoring drives Saturday to crush North Texas State, 33-0.

Tulane Soph Paces 21-0 Win Over Northwestern

New Orleans, La. (AP)—Sophomore Quarterback Gene Newton kept a big Northwestern team off balance with clever ball handling and guided Tulane to a 21-0 victory here Saturday.

Tulane scored in each of the first three quarters. Fullback Ronnie Quillion broke over on two five-yard touchdowns plunges and End Will Billon scored on a 12-yard pass interception.

Northwestern mustered only one serious threat, early in the second quarter. It was set up by a 37-yard pass from Quarterback Dale Pienta to Fullback John Foster on the Tulane five.

Tulane Center Jim Carmody averted a fourth down score when he knocked Quarterback Jack Ellis off his feet on the one after a four-yard gain.
