Rallying Huskers Edge Tigers, 16-14

By Wally Provost
Sports Editor of The World-Herald

Memorial Stadium, Columbia, Mo.—Nebraska can win tough ones, too.

Poise under pressure? The Cornhuskers provided a gilded answer Saturday, spotting Missouri 14 points in the opening quarter and then snatching a 16-to-14 triumph in the final minutes.

Technically, the decision was achieved on a 26-yard field goal by North Platte junior Larry Wachholtz with five minutes and 56 seconds to play.

But coming from so far back against Missouri's ball-control masters, it was a miracle of grit and persistence with honors divided equally between Quarterback Fred Duda's attackers and Linebacker Mike Kennedy's defenders.

Nebraska fattened its perfect record to 7-0 and took clear-cut command in the Big Eight Conference chase with a 4-0 mark.

North Platte Day

The record crowd of 58 thousand—larger even than the top turnout for the recent World Series—was on hand to see a challenge and a fight.

Missouri promptly threw the gantlet after taking the opening kick-off.

In a shade more than 10 minutes, Gary Lane quarterbacked the host team on forays adding up to 129 yards, two touchdowns and a lead that couldn't have looked more permanent in granite to the delirious homecoming celebrants.

With the sky clear, the temperature in the low 70's and the trees of an adjoining woods completing the idyllic autumn picture, it was a setting for poetry, not murder.

But Missouri was killing Nebraska.

In the first 10 minutes, the Huskers had the ball for only two plays—a three-yard run and a pass that was stolen by Johnny Roland.

Nebraska was not in a wilting mood, however. And at the finish, it had outyarded Mizzou, 318 to 243, and owned a precious triumph.

Nebraska's two touchdowns came in the second quarter and both were scored by Wachholtz's former high school teammate Pete Tatman, which must have made this one of North Platte's greatest days in football.

Controversy, Too

As usual, there was controversy.

Missouri boiled over a personal-foul penalty that gave Nebraska a vital 15 yards on the path to Wachholtz's field goal. The assessment was made, an official said, because of a profane remark.

Nebraska did not consider the penalty vital. The team had been moving with forceful momentum of its own generation.

Nor did the vanquished players quibble.

"They are not overrated—they're real good," Tiger Charlie Brown said of the Huskers.

Nebraska was stuck with the short end of a score for the first time this season when Lane topped an opening 80-yard drive with a run of 22 around his right end.

There had been only one crisis on that hard-blocking, clear-digging march. Because of a holding penalty, Missouri faced a third-and-20 predicament on its own 36.

14-Point Bulge

Rushed hard when he went back to pass, the big senior from East Alton, Ill., still got the ball off to Monroe Phelps on a strike that carried to the Nebraska 23.

When Nebraska got possession after the touchdown, Roland's interception of a Duda pass quickly returned the N.U. offensive platoon to the bench.

There was a clip on Roland's return, but the 15-yard handicap meant nothing to these supercharged athletes.

The set-up was a 19-yard aerial, Lane to End Jim Waller, which carried to the N.U. two-yard line. Fullback Carl (Bull) Reese burrowed inside the one, then slammed across.

Placement specialist Bill Bates zeroed in for the second time, raising the Tiger advantage to 14 points, each of which looked like a coffin nail to faint-hearted Husker rooters.

Nobody, positively nobody, gives Dan Devine that great a head start and then survives to win the race. But Bob Devaney did on this October 30.

Paul Christman, former Missouri All-America quarterback, studied Nebraska intently as it ran nine plays before relinquishing the ball.

"This," Christman muttered, "is a good club. Missouri's going to have to have all the breaks it can get."

Tackle Walt Barnes gave Christman some standing as a prophet by blocking Ray West's punt on the first play of the second quarter.

This time, Bob Churchich was at quarterback. But the Huskers still couldn't hit the big plays.

Wilson Gallops

When Nebraska forced a punt three minutes later, Duda again tried his hand at the N.U. throttle.

He completed a pass to End Freeman White, who out-fought double-teaming defenders to make it a gain of 16. Harry Wilson broke off left tackle and sped 37 yards to the Missouri one on the next play.

This looked more like a top 10 team.

Charlie Winters helped create line space as Tatman

Norman, Okla. (UPI)—Colorado overcame its own mistakes and blanketed Oklahoma with a powerful defense Saturday for a 13-to-0 Big Eight Conference football victory.

The charged-up Buffaloes intercepted three passes and recovered three fumbles to completely blunt the Sooner attack. Colorado held Oklahoma on the one-yard line as the first half ended and halted another drive on the 13 early in the fourth quarter.

Colorado used three Oklahoma errors to set up its lone touchdown.

Fullback Estes Banks collected the tally on a one-yard belt over left tackle late in the first quarter, climaxing a 48-yard march in 13 plays.

Frank Rogers, the Big Eight's leading scorer, kicked field goals of 34 and 42 yards and booted the extra point after Banks's touchdown to complete the scoring.

Colorado had one touchdown called back and muffed two other golden opportunities because of its own miscues, which produced 90 yards in penalties during the second half alone.

End Gordon Brown provided Oklahoma's lone bright offensive spark by hauling in eight passes for 110 yards to set a school record.

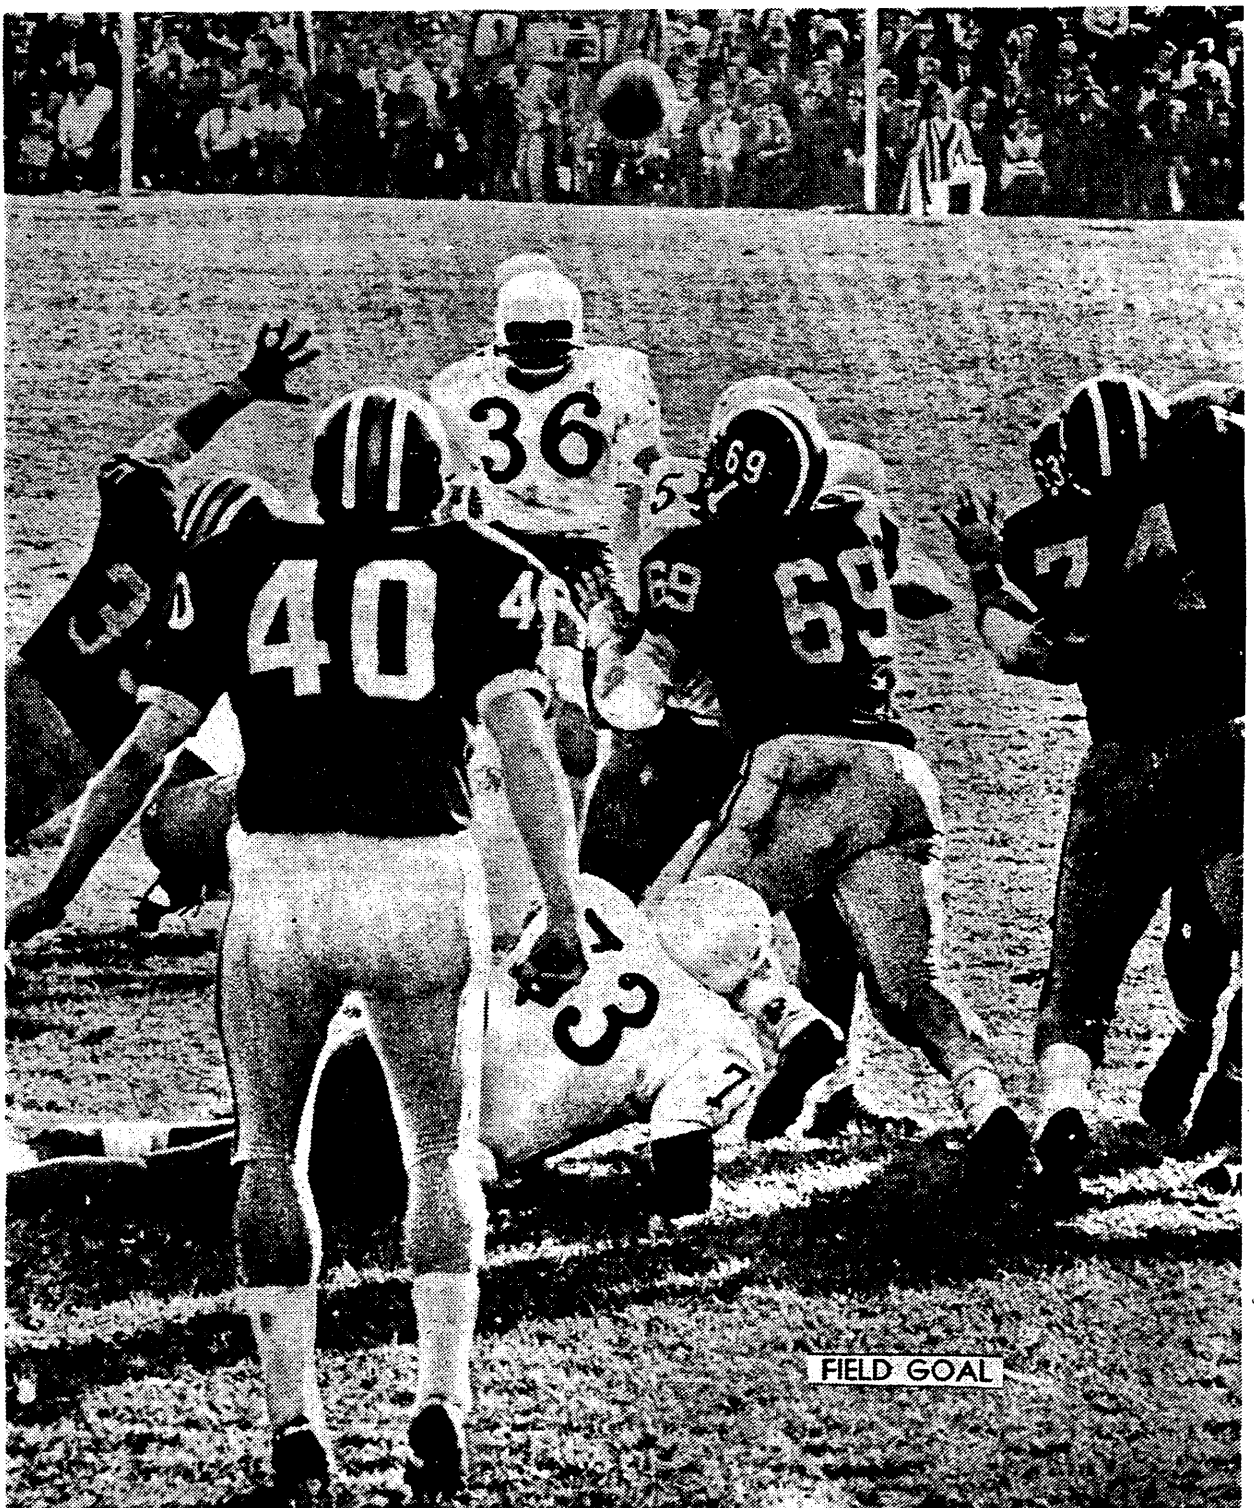

Colorado's big guns offensively were Quarterback Bernie McCall who hit on nine of 20 passes for 115 yards, and Halfback William Harris, who netted 60 yards in 14 carries.

Rogers's two field goals ran his total for the year to 11. He has attempted 15.

Georgia Rallies, Edges Carolina

Chapel Hill, N. C. (AP)—Fullback Dan Jenkins and Quarterback Lynn Hughes scored three touchdowns each as Georgia came from behind three times and defeated North Carolina, 47 to 35, Saturday.

The crowd of 43 thousand saw Georgia score 26 points in the final quarter after North Carolina had gone ahead, 35 to 21.

Georgia broke the game open in the last five minutes with three touchdowns.

A 31-yard scoring run by Quarterback Preston Riddlehuber sent Georgia into a 40-to-35 lead. Then the Bulldogs scored again when Hughes rumbled over from the four after North Carolina gambled on fourth down and lost possession on its 24.

Little Stuns Pitt in Syracuse Win

New York (AP)—Floyd Little rambled for four touchdowns, marking his biggest explosion of the season, as a rambling Syracuse football team romped over Pitt, 51 to 13, Saturday.

Syracuse's third straight victory and fifth in seven games came surprisingly easy.

Weber Unsung Hero on Winning Field Goal—Huskers Panic? Nope, They Just Had Job to Do

By Gregg McBride
World-Herald Sports Staff Member

Memorial Stadium, Columbia, Mo.—Nebraska fans may have had anxious moments while the Cornhuskers were beating Missouri, 16 to 14, Saturday—but the Scarlet players were confident all the way.

The Nebraskans were almost unanimous in declaring they always felt they could get the job done after falling behind, 14 to 0.

Big Walter Barnes, defensive tackle who blocked a Tiger punt and played a whale of a defensive game, gave the only mild dissenting vote.

Barnes sighed, "I'm sure glad that's over," as he shook his sweat-soaked gear.

No Panic

Then Barnes joined the majority with, "I always felt we were going to win but a short while during the final quarter I was beginning to wonder just when."

Tackle Barnes, Husker candidate for All-America, went one step further with, "It is a shame a good team like Missouri has to lose."

Did the Huskers panic? Coach Bob Devaney answered with an emphatic "No!"

He got solid support from Co-Captains Mike Kennedy and Frank Solich.

A Job to Do

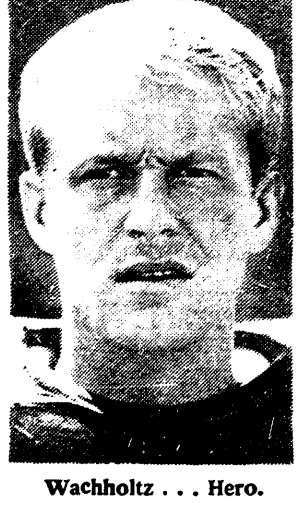

"We knew we had a job to do and felt we could do it," Kennedy explained after the game.

"I talked to my group (defense) and Frank (Solich) talked to his group (offense)."

"Coach Devaney said a few words and we were ready."

Kennedy felt the Huskers were a different team after

Indian Comeback Trips Washburn

Topeka, Kans.—Two scoring drives in the second half Saturday night enabled Omaha University to come from behind for a 19-to-10 conquest of arch-rival Washburn.

The fifth straight victory in a 6-1 season was much tougher than Omaha fans anticipated as The Ichabods regained Mel Myricks and John Sailor, speedy halfbacks who had been on the injured list.

The Indians couldn't muster a sustained attack until after Washburn's Pat Scherzer stole the ball from Gerald Allen at the outset of the third quarter.

Scherzer came out of the pileup with ball and rambled 26 yards to the Omaha 11, where he fumbled and teammate Tom Huber recovered.

The Ichabods, scrimmaging from the Omaha six-yard line with four downs to cover the short yardage, found themselves with a fourth-and-14 situation as the aroused Indians turned back every thrust.

Don Del Mazzio, one of the many Ichabods on the injury list most of the season, missed a field-goal attempt from the 21. He had opened scoring in the first period with a 35-yard boot.

It was all Omaha from then on. The Indians needed only seven plays to cover 80 yards with Marlin Briscoe going the last five after Bill Dodd and Allen did most of the work.

The Omahans marched 79 yards on eight plays early in the fourth period to clinch the decision. Allen went the final two yards but a 47-yard Briscoe-to-Bill Haas pass was the big gainer.

The Ichabods capitalized on their first break of the game when Allen fumbled a punt and J. D. Cleavinger recovered on the Omaha 21.

The Ichabods moved to the 17 and called on Del Mazzio when it became a fourth-and-11 situation. His boot was good and Washburn held a short-lived lead with 4:34 left in the first period.

The Indians marched right back with the kick-off, scoring on the first play of the second quarter for a 7-to-3 lead. The advance needed 10 plays to cover 74 yards with Dodd smashing the last five.

Two penalties were featured as Washburn bounced back to regain the lead, 10 to 7, just before intermission.

Omaha's Ed Jackson was ejected from the game on a personal foul and Omaha was penalized to its five-yard line. Washburn was charged with clipping before completing the 77-yard march in 13 plays.

George Blankenship proved himself a good placement man but a poor runner and passer. After making the placement following Omaha's first touchdown, he was victimized by two bad snaps on subsequent tries. He tried to run after the Briscoe touchdown and his pass was off target after Allen scored in the final period.

Omaha's domination after intermission was proven by statistics. The Indians had only five first downs, 94 yards rushing and 20 passing in the first half, to six, 112 and 17 for the Ichabods.

Omaha finished with 19 first downs, 256 yards rushing and 95 on passing as Briscoe connected on five of 12 tosses. Washburn had 10 first downs, 153 yards rushing and 23 passing.

Allen, the Little All-America, more than atoned for his miscues by making 105 yards on 20 carries. Dodd gained 86 on 14 tries and Briscoe added 65 on 10 carries.

Charlie White made 50 yards on 10 carries for Washburn. Sailor added 35 on 11 tries and Myricks 33 on 15.

Boozer Is Slated for New Trade?

Los Angeles, Cal. (AP)—Los Angeles of the National Basketball Association was reported Saturday trying to acquire Baltimore's 6-foot-11 Walt Bellamy.

The Los Angeles Herald-Examiner said the Lakers have offered Guard Gene Wiley and about 100 thousand dollars in exchange for Bellamy. It was also reported that Bob Boozer, recently acquired by the Lakers from New York, might be involved in the trade.

The report said negotiations probably would be completed this week end.
